Ren's Ramblings

CREATIVE TENSION: The ability to deal with incompatibility

WAR: War doesn't determine who's right – only who is left

IGNORE: Arrogance, Pain of the Past, Prison of Prejudice

SNORE: Trying to tolerate- lowest level of emotional intelligence, trying to co-exist

EXPLORE: Curiosity, Courage

SCORE: Get out of your prison and step onto another level.

ADORE: Love your neighbour

This presentation at the District Conference really left a lasting impression on me and therefore I am sharing it with you as my final contribution.

Let us move on together, giving Albie all our support and be a vibrant, active club.

Thank you all for making my year successful and a pleasure to serve you!

Have a great week,

Ren

President Renate Bowers

Meeting: 25 June

- Guests: Anns and guests from the CMDA.
- A reminder to RSVP for Albie's Induction dinner on Saturday.
- Albie gave brief feedback on Discon and announced that the next one will be in Mozambique.
- Don announced that the KMIA box is back at the airport, let's hope we get many donations.
- There will be a Career's Day meeting tomorrow at Brian's home.
- Debbie presented the Year in Pictures, and overview of the 2018/29 Rotary year.
- Dot was Sergeant for the evening.
- Wine draw was different this week. Renate had a bottle of wine and box of chocolates as a gift from the Latvian Rotarians. Chocolates was won by Janet, and the wine by Hitesh (.....mmmmm Neha did the coin toss – bit suspicious that)
- Leon thanked Renate for her year as President, and also thanked Frances and Brian for organising the meals with Ingwenyama.
- And with that, Renate rang the meeting bell for the last time.

Thank you for being a great
President

Next meeting 1st July:

Grace & Fellowship: Adrian

Sergeant: Brian

A note from Albie

At next Monday's meeting I will be setting out the goals that I envisage for our club, probably better expressed as my wishes for the club. It is not going to be a monologue. This is an opportunity to respond, to agree or disagree, to tell us what you think. What direction should the club be taking? Are there changes that should be made, and what are they? At our first board meeting it became apparent that we are receptive to new ideas, to thinking out of the box. Do come and make a contribution. As is the custom, 100% attendance will be rewarded with a round of drinks! So, this invitation is also a challenge!
